Curricula can be combined to create a comprehensive program. School Readiness program providers may use other combinations of curriculum materials not on this list, however they must first meet with a Coalition quality program staff to discuss their approach and demonstrate how it meets the standards and is developmentally appropriate. The Coalition program manager will determine if an alternative selected curriculum is allowable.

*Providers participating in the Look for the Stars Quality Improvement System are expected to have six hours of training in their chosen curriculum.

VPK providers are allowed to use whatever curriculum they choose unless their kindergarten readiness rate scores fall into the low performing category, at which point their site must use a curriculum approved by DOE. See DOE OEL website for this listing and procedures.

VPK Providers must complete the required VPK form indicating how their chosen curriculum relates to the VPK standards.

As DOE and/or AWI/OEL issues new guidance or a recommended or approved list of curriculum, then the Coalition will update and revise its list. As new information and research is released, it will also be revised.

Programs and specific lessons within religious curriculum

Note: Developmentally appropriate “Character Development” programs for young children support and strengthen social/emotional skills and should be infused throughout the curriculum. There are many varied ways that a child care provider can incorporate character development programs within their overall programs. The above are examples only, not a definitive listing. Approval is made on a case-by-case basis. New examples are added to the official list on a quarterly basis.

In addition, examples of how to incorporate character development and support for social emotional health in young children are available in the Coalition’s Resource Room.
